ADMINISTRATION

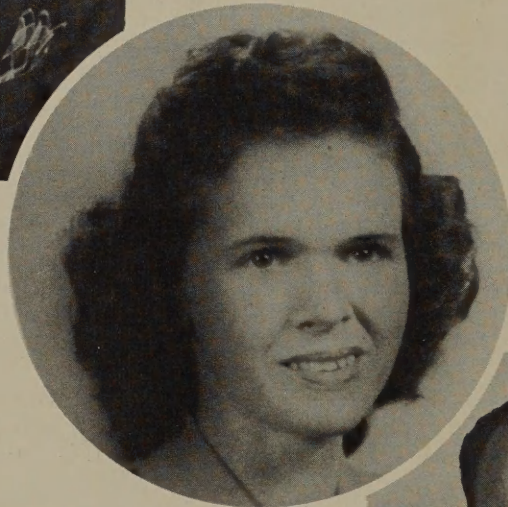

To the Seniors of 1950:

Life is made up of complexities; some, over which we have no control. But if our foundation for living has been built on the solidity of courage, truth, loyalty, faith, and charity, we have nothing to fear. To be sure, you will have disappointments, but always remember that many times opportunity comes in the guise of adversity.

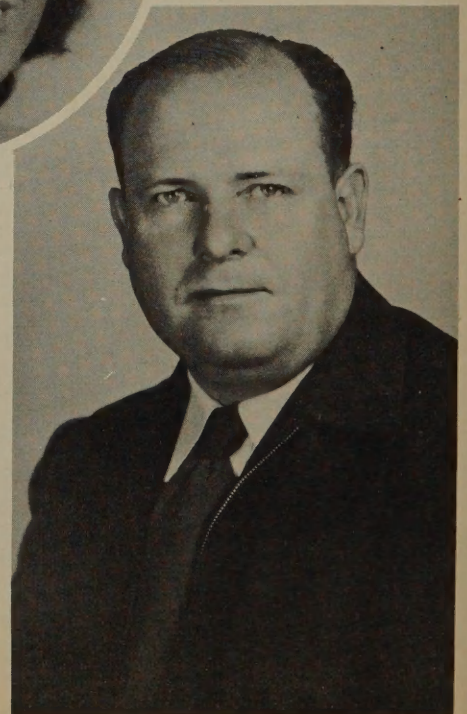

To have been your friend is a privilege I will not forget, and it is my sincere wish that you may have a future filled with successful, fruitful living blessed with the favor of your fellowman.

Sincerely yours,

W. M. Campbell

Dearest Hazel,

I just can't begin to tell you how much I miss you. You're often wished we were sitting well, as if I were had so much fun together taking turns getting our cars and going to the beach. I hope you had a lot of fun for that reason. But now, isn't it?

Well, I hope you're as happy as I am now.

Dear Hazel,

Words are useless
when that certain
undefinable thing exists
between us. I know that as long as I shall live you will
be one of the dearest
people in the world
to me. I know that as long as you live
there will always be a person who is thoughtful, sweet, and considerate of others.

To the sweetest and
the best.

Love you always,
Joyce L. M.

Dear Hazel,

Hazel & I think
you are a very nice girl.
Peggy

Dear Hazel.

I will say all the nice things first!! I guess we are just about the closets friends can get and I only hope that we can always stay that way. You know me better than anyone and I guess my little game would be up if you ever became my enemy.

You are a wonderful, marvelous, and simply divine person to know. Hazel, you may think that I am joking, but I think you are a beautiful girl. You really have to know someone well to say that!!

Be good Hazel and always stay as sweet and wonderful as you are now and when "he" comes along you won't be sorry.

We have had so much fun together, we've shared so many good times, we've had so many laughs and so many tears that I can't imagine life without you. Don't ever stop being my friend. I'll ever need you next year when Virginia is gone.

By the time you read this next year my little "week-end to come" will be long-gone history but I hope just the same that I have fun. I can hardly wait till we get to go up there on the 18th. Don't let life get you down, kid - take me for example - Ha!!!

(By the way, another piece of advice, don't be carry that "hook" too long!!) I've written a page & still not said half that I should but maybe the rest is left unsaid - Please be sweet & be secret to me - for Heaven's sake!! See you tonight as usual - all my love & friendship.

Dear Hazel,
Well here goes another page - Guess people will think I am crazy for writing so much, but you ask for it. Looks like this is going to be "all she wrote" for us in a little while. Don't look now but I am glad about it - O.K. so I am crazy. I really want to get off to college. I think we are going to really lead a life at college. "What have we got to lose?"

Hazel, I'd like to take time now to say "I'm sorry" for all the times in the past that we have argued. I guess we had to though. Sometimes you get to know a person so well you can almost read their mind. I guess we are about at that stage.

Some day Hazel, when you read this page over and show it to your kids, remember me and say something nice about me to them. (That is - if you have the page is here.)

We are going to have fun this year kid! Or Elsie!
Don't lose any sleep over that "touch". Time cures anything and I do mean anything! A year has passed nearly since the last time I wrote in your annual and lots of things have changed. By the time we sign annuals again they will have changed again. Don't worry Hazel - no matter what!
always remember that I'll stick by you and if ^{you} need help - just call on me!!

Love,
Jean

P.S.
People write the silliest things in annuals. I do mean it!
God bless you, honey!!

M. J. M.

P.S. jr. Don't forget the fun
we had this summer with Cooper & George. I say
George - George that is!!
J. M.
